

Carolina - a new ballet by Cape Fear Dance Theatre

What does it mean to be female?
Unraveling layer upon layer.
A voyeuristic approach.
Exposing associations of 'femininity'.

Amber Adam's new work Carolina leads audiences through the Bellamy Mansion exploring being female through the storytelling of the Bellamy sisters (Belle, Eliza, Ellen, Kate, and Chelsey) and their mother (Eliza McIlhenny Harris). Aspects and the interconnectedness of personal identity and outer influences are explored in the light of cultural and social landscapes that have remained present within by the Mansion and within our lives today. Carolina is a processional work, leading audience members throughout the Bellamy Mansion, seating is provided as needed.

Carolina is a part of the 9-day long SARUS Festival for Site-Specific & Experimental Art. The SARUS Festival offers non-commercial, intellectually stimulating, interdisciplinary performance events and outreach utilizing dance, art and public interaction. This year the SARUS Festival raises the themes that relate to the topography of separation (barriers, borders and territoriality) and invite artists and the community to come together to discuss, overcome and connect.

The SARUS Festival is organized and made possible by Alban Elved Dance Company, a 501-c-3 non-profit charitable organization. www.albanelved.org
